Notes for ALPHEUS DAVISON:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 8, Ed. 1, Tree #1452, Date of Import: May 5, 1998]

From Wheeler geneology - Statement written by Alpheus Davison concerning ages etc. of various members of our family and the family of his wife:

"My wife and I are cousins. Our mothers were sisters."

"In June 1844 my wife's parents, with their family, came from England and settled at Salem, New Jersey. I was then in Philadelphia learning my trade, printing, and in July she came to Philadelphia to try to get work and earn her living and her mother asked me to look after her and help her learn American ways, which I promised to do. She was quite adept with her needle, so I took her to a friend who was a tailor and also kept boarders and asked me to come board with him, and on explaining my mission there, with my rosy cheeked English cousin, he said if we would both come and board with him he would teach her the tailoring business without any charge. This we consented to do and she at once took up her abode in his family and a few weeks later I went there also. This brought us into close companionship with each other and we soon found that our affections were rapidly growing so that each was lonely without the other. On Christmas eve, 1844, we went wandering through some of the fashionable thoroughfares of the great city, to see the sights of the occasion, and after returning to the boarding house, sat down alone in the parlor and talked awhile, and then stood up and pledged our lives together, and never since have we hankered after any other mate. Some months later, in 1845, though I was not of age, we went to a minister and had the knot firmly tied. We have had seven children. The third one, a daughter, died of cholera infantum about nine months old. The others are all living and generally healthy. We have five great grandchildren. I was born in Luton, Bedfordshire, England, March 10, 1825. My good wife was born in Olney, Buckinghamshire, England, April 10, 1823. Olney was the home of the poet Cowper and all of our parents were born and brought up there." Statement added by Joseph K Davison

"The writer of the above died January 4, 1911, nearly 86. His wife died January 12, 1913, nearly 90 years old."

Bits & pieces from Obituaries in Logan, Iowa and Washington, DC:

Former Logan man, editor of the Harrison County Courier, is dead in Anacosta, DC. On Wednesday, January 4, 1911, at his residence, 1252 Talbert Street, Anacostia. Alpheus, beloved husband of Bithia Davison, in the 86 year of his age. Funeral from his late residence on Friday, January 6 at 2 PM. Services were held at his home, interment in Congressional Cemetery. He was born in Luton, Bedfordshire, England, March 10, 1825. He came to this country in 1830. He was of prominent English ancestry and it is said that it was in the meadow of his grandfather's country place that Cowper, the poet, sat down and composed his famous "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood". He learned the printers trade in Philadelphia. In 1845 he married Bithea Wheeler, who was his playmate in England and who had just arrived in America with her relatives. They moved to Canton, Illinois in about 1848, where he was publisher and editor of the Canton Register, which remained prosperous under his control until sold by him in 1866. The days of the Civil War came while he was in charge of the paper and he supported zealously the cause of the Union. In 1863, he enlisted in Company C, 103rd Illinois Infantry and was discharged in 1864. In the late 1870's and early 1880's he was editor of The Courier and was a member of Logan school board. He came to Washington and received an appointment in November 1884 in the Pension Office. He selected Anacostia as the place of his residence and there he secured a suburban home, to the care of which he devoted much time and attention. He is survived by his wife, who is nearly 88 years old, and six children. Joseph K. of Anacostia, William R., postmaster at Sterling, Virginia, Mrs. Henrietta Spooner of Gunnell, Iowa, A. J. of Caraboo (or Caboole?) Missouri, Mrs. Emma Reel of Fairview, Oklahoma, and Charles L. of the Post Office Department. He had been a member of the Oddfellows since 1861 and was a charter member of the Anacostia branch. He was a member of John A. Logan Post #13, Grand Army of the Republic and Salem Lodge #23. The funeral services this afternoon are in charge of the lodges of which he was member. He was a prolific writer on religious topics, had published several books and tracts on religious studies and was associated with several organizations having for their purpose the study of the Scriptures.

Notes of Peggy Lambert:

He built a stone house in Logan, which is still standing. (don't know what year this was written) He was Baptist and was church organist. He was a good man, musically inclined, wrote some music.

Notes for BITHEA WHEELER:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 8, Ed. 1, Tree #1452, Date of Import: May 5, 1998]

From Wheeler genology, Herber N Wheeler:

"Aunt Bith, as we called her was almost 21 year old when she left England, having been born April 10, 1823. It is doubtful if any couple was happier in their married life than Uncle Alpheus and Aunt Bith. It was my good fortune to visit them a few days in 1907 and in 1908 in their home in Anacostia (southeast Washington, DC). Uncle Alpheus came to Washington in Civil War days working for the government. He was here and saw the events connected with the assination of President Lincoln. He went to Logan, Iowa, and ran a newspaper for a time, then returned to work in the pension bureau of the government until his death."

"All the girls in Olney were supposed to learn lace making and the boys the watchmaking trade."

Notes from Peggy Lambert

"Grandmother was heavy and had very small feet. She was so fat her feet wouldn't support her. Her claim to fame was the lace she made on pillows." note: Pillow lace is also known as Bobbin lace.

Notes for LEAH ANN DAVISON:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 8, Ed. 1, Tree #1452, Date of Import: May 5, 1998]

From written statement of Alpheus Davison

"Leah, my oldest sister, was born in April 1830, and is still living and healthy. She like myself married an English cousin who died of pneumonia, December 13, 1902, in Atchison County, Kansas. They had eight children of whom six are living. One boy was killed by lightning while harrowing in the field and one little daughter died from the bite of a rattlesnake."

From Wheeler geneology, Herbert N. Wheeler

"Leah married a cousin, Abel Robinson, and they lived on a farm in northeast Kansas, not far from her folks and the Wheeler families. Ed Robinson, a son of Leah and Abel, is living in Nortonville, Kansas. A daughter, Zillah, married Ed Stillman from "THE LANE." He is now dead, but the family, I believe, is still living at Oceanside, California, where I called upon them some years ago."

Notes for ABEL ROBINSON:

ROBINSON.—Abel Robinson was born at Olney, Buckinghamshire, England, Feb. 12, 1823, came to the United States in 1848, landing in New York May 29th. In a few days he went to Salem, N. Y. In 1850 he married Matilda Townsend. In the summer of 1854 he moved to Davenport, Iowa; here on Dec. 9, 1854 his wife died. In Feb. 1856 he went to Farmington, Ill.; there he married Leah Davison, daughter of the late Eld. Samuel Davison. Eight children blessed this marriage, six of whom are still living. While in Farmington he professed religion and embraced the Sabbath, and in 1863 he became very, earnestly interested in Bible truth, renounced immortal soulism and became a firm believer in the kingdom of God upon earth. He remained firm in this belief to the end of his mortal life. He was taken sick with pneumonia fever Sabbath morning Dec. 6th and died on Sabbath morning at 3 o'clock Dec. 13, 1902, aged 76 years and 10 months. He leaves a wife and 7 children, one daughter by his first wife, 32 grandchildren and 6 great grand children. He came to Atchison county, Kansas, in 1865, located on a farm where he lived the remainder of his life. He was buried by the side of his two children, that died some years ago, in the family burial ground on Dec. 15, 1902.

Great God I own thy sentence just,
And natnre must decay,
I yield my body to the dust,
To dwell with fellow clay.

Yet faith may triumph o'er the grave
And trample on the tombs,
My great Redeemer ever lives,
My God, my Savior comes.

The mighty conqueror shall appear.
High on a royal seat
And death, the last of all his fees,
Lies vanquished at his feet.

Then shall I see thy lovely face
With strong immortal eyes,
And feast upon thy wondrous grace,
With pleasure and surprise.

There is a calm for those who weep
A rest for weary pilgrims found;
They softly lie; they sweetly sleep
Low in the ground.

The storm that wrecks the wintry sky
No more disturbs their deep repose
Than summer evenings latest sigh
That shuts the rose.

I long to lay this painful head
And aching heart beneath the soil
To slumber in that dreamless bed
From all my toil.

"Ken accidentally shot a boy and he grieved so about it, he finally ran away from home. His parents managed to locate him and persuade him to come back, but according to Aunt Pearl (Davison Dewey) he never got over it to the day he died. Mother (Hazel Davison Lambert) remembers him as rough and uncouth. He owned a hotel in Logan, Iowa, called The Logan House, which he later sold to his brother, William R. Lambert. Hazel remembers him owning a restaurant in Anacostia. She remembers that he raised squab for the restaurant and, of course, she, as a child, remembers the bloody part of it."

Notes of Peggy Lambert:

Emma was the only child of Ken and Callie, although Aunt Pearl (Davison Dewey) tells me that Callie lost twins. From all present accounts, the whole family was eccentric, so the loss of the twins was never common knowledge. Emma never married because her beau got another girl in trouble and had to marry her and Emma lost faith in men. When she retired from the Government, she lived with Bee (Ruby Davison) off and on until she died. We assumed that she had cancer of the uterus because she was bleeding for several years before she died, but she would never let a doctor examine her. Bee finally managed to get her to go to a Homeopathic Hospital, but she didn't like it so she left and rented a room in the All States Hotel and lived there alone until she died at the age of 83. She was so weak she could hardly walk and one night she was out alone, as usual, and either walked or fell in front of a car. She never regained consciousness.

STERLING

Miss Hazel Marie Davison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davison, and Ray Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lambert of Ryan, were married at the home of the bride on June 11 at 8 o'clock in the presence of several relatives and friends, the ceremony being performed by Reverend J. H. Kulmann. The bride was beautifully attired in white charmeuse draped in shadow lace and a tulle veil being arranged in cap effect caught with white roses and carrying a large bouquet of white roses tied with white satin ribbons. The bride and groom and their attendants, Miss Pearl Davison, in white embroidered voile, and D. M. McDonald entered the parlor, which was beautifully decorated in pink roses and palms, while Miss Viva Taylor played the wedding march from Lohengrin. After congratulations, a reception followed, the Mother of the bride receiving in a gown of gray. The bride's traveling suit was of gray whipcord, hat, gloves, and shoes to match. They received many handsome presents, one of the most noticeable being a silver service from the bride's sister, Mrs. Mildred Adams, of Minnesota. The couple will live in Leesburg, where the groom is in business.

Mother rode horses in fact right up to the time Peggy was born. The doctor had told her that since riding was a regular habit it wouldn't hurt to continue riding through her pregnancy, using caution, of course. Before they were married, Hazel and Mary were going riding with Ray and George one cold day. Usually the girls rode sidesaddle and in split skirts, however, they knew it would be cold so they wore Jeff's trousers under their skirts and thought they were very daring.

She was a bookbinder for the U.S. Government Printing Office

She was a Methodist.

She is buried at Union Cemetery in Leesburg, Virginia

Her biggest interest were her children.

She resided at Arlington, Virginia

Notes for RAY LAMBERT:

Notes for RAY LAMBERT:

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 8, Ed. 1, Tree #1452, Date of Import: May 5, 1998]

When Ray and Roy were little boys they would go walking with their Grandfather Weedon. He walked with a cane, they were walking behind him, mocking his walk, he turned around and caught them and gave them a whack with his cane. The boys were dressed differently so people could tell them apart. They would sneak out of sight and change clothes to fool everyone. Both Louise and Teensie saw the only picture I have of Roy and they thought it was a picture of Ray. I have no pictures of them together or of Ray at that age to see the likeness.

According to Elizabeth Jones Fletcher, sister of Josephine Jones Lambert, of Leesburg, Ray owned a livery stable in Leesburg in probably 1913-14, where the Post Office now stands. Ray and Hazel lived in an apartment over an office on Market Street.

Aunt Josephine says Paul worked for Ray at the stable and later Ray and Paul worked in Alexandria, Virginia, at the shipyard. While there, Ray had rheumatic fever and she used to go in every day and help Hazel take care of him. I remember hearing that Uncle Petie had a dry cleaning business at King and Washington Streets and there was an apartment over it where Hazel and Ray lived. Peedee was born there. I have a copy of a withdrawal card from Alexandria 369 Lodge dated September 30, 1920, from the Boilermakers, Iron Ship Builders, and Helpers of America. The number is hard to read, but looks like 291644. This ties in with some notes I found of Peggy's that they moved back to Leesburg when she was about 6 years old. His brother Jay owned a Chevrolet dealership in Leesburg and according to his daughter Louise, Ray worked for him as a mechanic and their father, J. D., kept the books. I'm not sure what happened after Jay's death in 1923, but know that Ray was later an insurance salesman with Peoples Life and sold Chevrolets for, I believe, Lawrence Hutchinson. I have a certificate he was awarded in 1935 for selling 50 or more automobiles that year.

Hazel and Ray lived in Leesburg when Peggy was born, Alexandria when Peedee was born, King Street when Norma Jean was born, Paeonion Springs when Ray was born, Louise says we lived there with Sis and Richmond Ely, and King and Royal Streets when Roy was born, and in Hamilton when Ray died.

Ron Lambert read from a letter that Mamie had sent to his father, "Ray is in Garfield Hospital, in care of Dr. Woods, heart specialist," dated January 27, 1936. I am assuming this is when he had the heart attack while going, from Hamilton to Leesburg, to work.

Quotes from a letter from Wilma J. Lambert Hoy:

"Aunt Hazel and Uncle Ray were very unconventional - such as starting fudge at 9 p.m.! Your father had a HUGE heart and as you may remember was always bringing stray people home. There was a small boy - Ambrose? - who would stay all summer. He also brought home a poor young girl who ate quantities of butter. Your parents were the only color our family had when I was a child. I even believe they were VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS ."

From death records of Union Cemetery, Leesburg, Virginia, Ray Lambert died March 22, 1937 of myocarditis.

BLAZE EXCITEMENT FATAL TO LAMBERT

Hamilton Resident Expires As Flames Raze Barn At His Home
-----

A heart attack superinduced by a fire that destroyed a stable on the property on which he lived in Hamilton proved fatal to Ray Lambert, 47, well known Loudoun business man. Mr Lambert, married and the father of 5 children slumped as he raced from the barn to his nearby home to spread the alarm of fire. His wife half turned as she sped toward the blazing barn to observe her husband stretched on the ground.

Mr. Lambert had been in failing health for more than a year from a heart ailment and had been cautioned against undue excitement or violent exercise. The flames, believed to have been started by children playing in the barn, entirely destroyed the frame structure and an automobile housed in it. Fire Departments from Leesburg and Purcellville were enabled to prevent spread of the fire to the home and nearby buildings.

He was a son of J. D. Lambert of Hamilton and the late Mrs. Sarah Weadon Lambert and was born at Ryan, this County.

Mr. Lambert was a member of the Ashburn Masonic Lodge.

Besides his father, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hazel Davison Lambert: five children, Misses Margaret and Mildred Lambert, Washington; Jean, Ray and Roy Lambert, at home; two brothers, Paul and J. W. Lambert, Washington; and two sisters, Mrs. George A. Noland, Ashburn, and Mrs. D. N. McDonald, Leesburg.

Services were held from the grave in Union Cemetery, Leesburg.

Pallbearers were A. L. Megeath, Stilson H. Hall, E. L. Munday, S. C. Lefevre, Jack Hutchison, and Richmond

Ely.

Notes for WILLIAM WALLACE SHEFFIELD:

SHEFFIELD—William Wallace Sheffield died at his home near Earl, Nebr., after a very short illness of advanced stage of heart disease. The deceased was born near Madison, Wisconsin, Dec. 15, 1851. Age 53 years 1 month and 2 days. He married Louie Robinson June 21 1882. To this union were born five boys. He leaves a faithful wife, a father (E. S. Sheffield), five sons, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his death. For many years Brother Sheffield lived near Woodward, Iowa. From this place he with his family moved to Oklahoma where they lived six months and then moved to Rawlins county, Kansas, where he lived about eighteen months. Desiring to secure church and Sabbath school privileges he moved to his new home near Earl, Frontier Co., Nebr. His place is greatly missed in his home, in the church and Sabbath school and in the community, for he was a kind loving husband and father and a devoted Christian, having for many years been a firm believer in the doctrines of the Bible as held by the Church of God, of which he was a faithful member. He was spoken of by all his neighbors as a good, honest and conscientious man. He died as he lived—in the hope of the soon coming of the Life giver to banish sickness, and sorrow and death and to give eternal life to all the faithful, and set up His everlasting kingdom. We sorrow not as having no hope, for we believe our brother will come forth when the Master calls in the morning of the resurrection. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer to the sorrowing family. His oldest son, Elmer Sheffield and wife, of Woodward, Iowa, were present. We laid him away in the silent tomb, sweetly sleeping in Jesus till that voice which shall wake the dead, shall say, come forth. L. L. PRESLER.

Death of W. W. Sheffield.

W. W. Sheffield died at his home near Farnam, Neb., January 17, 1905, of heart failure, aged 53 years 1 month and 2 days. Mr. Sheffield was born in Wisconsin, December 15 1851, the second son of E. S. and Ann Sheffield. When about fourteen years of age his parents moved to Appanoose county, Iowa, and from there to Boone county about five years later, settling near Woodward, where he remained until the spring of 1901, when he moved to Oklahoma, afterwards going to Rawlins county, Kansas, then to Frontier county Nebraska, where he lived at the time of his death.

He united with the Church of God and remained a faithful member all his life. He was married June 21, 1881, to Lovina Robinson, of Mortonville, Kans., to whom were born five sons, Elmer W. of Scranton, Oliver A., William A., Jesse A., and Robert E., who with their mother remain to mourn him. He leaves besides his family an aged father and step-mother, two sisters, two brothers and numerous other friends. One sister Mrs. Olive Darner died nearly eight years ago.

From Brother E. S. Sheffield.

Dear Brethren and Sisters: —I want to say a few words to every one I can that is hoping with me for a more enduring life free from grief, in the kingdom of God when it comes. To all such the promise of Jesus to raise up all his followers at the last day, and he informs us it is his Father's will that he shall do this, and he has assured us it is his delight to comply with that will, hence the promise that he will comply with that will without anyone given him being lost. Oh, how precious that promise! And how that preciousness is intensified by the reception of such news as was imparted by the following dispatch none realizes but those who have been robbed of loved ones by the cruel enemy death! "Farnam, Neb., Jan. 17, 1905. Mrs. E. S. Sheffield, Vinton, Iowa. Wallace is dead! If father comes, answer. Louise Sheffield. 4:35 p.m. The foregoing dispatch was received at 5 p.m. The next morning I picked up a little unopened paper and read:

DEATH OF A GODLY MAN.

"His work is done, his warfare ended.
His earthly trials all are over.
His place shall know him here no more,
Behold how calm in earth he slumbers,
Each wrinkling trouble wiped away,
Earth's load no more his soul encumbers.
Tread with soft step and forehead lowly,
As ye draw near his saintly bed,
Though naught can break the rest so holy,
That reigns around the pillowed head,
Till the last trumpet's solemn warning,
Re-echoes through the boundless skies,
Shall usher in the eternal morning,
And bid the slumbering dead arise.
He slumbers well, God's angels guard him,
Who giveth his beloved sleep.
Waiting and watching death hath found him.
Oh, not for him, ye mourners. weep.

Oh, not for him, shed tears of sorrow,
Around whose brow with dawning rays,
The light of that eternal morrow,
In pure and placid sweetness plays,
His work is done, his warfare ended,
That work was hard, that warfare sore,
Yet God be thanked he soon shalt rise,
To be with Christ forevermore.

After reading the foregoing beautiful lines of calm resignation, hope and faith I was gratified to learn they came by the pen of our beloved brother, Eugene Willard who like myself is watching the signs that are passing because we cannot know by time reckoning, therefore we must heed the admonition of Jesus given to all who are waiting for the kingdom of God, and if we are now in the time of the end and the sounding of the seventh trumpet under which John heard great voices in heaven declaring the kingdom of this world are transformed into the kingdom of Christ, it is important to compare .passing events with the predictions as the events of the trumpet, and time of the end are foretold but the length of time is not, We can with earnestness watch and wait hoping we may be found ready to meet our loved ones when they are brought to life again to die no more.
