Per the LDS, Thomas Sheffield also had a brother named John. John Sr. in turn had a son John (jr) who was christened 23 AUG 1812 at Saint Leonards, Shoreditch, London, England. (month and day do not correlate with John S. Sheffield US record)

We know John S. (Jr) is related to Thomas because his daughter Cornelia shows up in 1870 census at Ruth Sheffield's house teaching in Sumner WI. We also see him living nearby to the family in WI and IA as well.

SHEFFIELD - Died, Elisha Stratton Sheffield at the home of Sister Louie Sheffield, near Farnam, Nebr, of paralysis.

Deceased was born Feb. 17, 1824, Bedfordshire, England. Died Aug. 17, 1907, at the age of 83 yrs and 6 months. Came with his parents to America in 1841. Married Miss Anna Kirby, Dec. 1, 1846, to this union were born 8 children, 5 boys and 3 girls. Two died in infancy. Six grew to manhood and womanhood. Two sons, Lucius and Kirby Sheffield, and a daughter, wife of Eld S. S. Davison, live near Fairview, Okla. The other living daughter, Mrs. Lovilla Templeton, lives in Los Angeles, Cal. His wife died Jan 16, 1889. On Nov. 26, 1896, he married Mrs. Cynthia Singleton, M. D. She, too, was taken from him by the cruel enemy, death, on his 82nd birthday. Our aged brother, his two companions, two infant sons, his son Wallace, and his daughter, Olive Darner, lie sleeping in Jesus, and the four who survive are in keeping with the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, prospective of a final reunion in the kingdom of God of the entire family. O blessed thought, how cheering and comforting the hope set before you who are left to mourn the loss of father, mother, brothers, and sister. Be faithful, dear brothers and sisters.

Bro. Sheffield left his home at Bro. and Sister Davison for Atwood, Kan., and from there he came here to visit Sister Louie Sheffield and family, and from here he intended to go to the camp meeting at Ravenwood, Mo., and then up in Iowa to visit friends and relatives. He felt well as usual when he came here. Preached to the church here on Sabbath concerning the kingdom of God and spoke of the dear loved ones he had laid away to rest, awaiting the coming of the King of peace. On Sabbath day, after coming from church, he was well as ever, and near the close of the day he went out to sit in the shade, and was writing a letter to the BIBLE ADVOCATE when the stroke came, paralyzing his entire right side. He could only speak a few words that could be understood and was semiconscious for a few days. On the following Sabbath, near the same time he fell asleep in Christ to wait for his coming to wake him out of the sleep of death in the morning of the resurrection.

He embraced the Advent faith 55 years ago, and remained a faithful keeper, teacher and defender of the faith till death. Our dear aged brother was a grand, good, noble, honest Christian man. He was conscientious in his faith and practice, and an earnest, devoted, and zealous worker in the cause of the Master, with his means, his tongue, and his pen. Eld. Sheffield was a good Bible student, having spent many years in careful investigation of its sacred truths, and much time was given to the study of prophecy, and his writings have been very profitable and instructive to the readers of the ADVOCATE. A true and tried soldier of the cross has fallen, a kind loving father has been taken, the church has lost a worthy Christian member, and our paper an (X)ole and instructive contributor. We deeply feel the loss, as he was in possession of the faculties of this mind in a good degree to the last, giving us meat in due season. Gone, but not forgotten, his works do follow him. To know him was to admire and love him. His son Kirby and his daughter Matilda Davison, came on receipt of telegram and administered to his comfort and stood by him in his last hours.

Funeral services were conducted by the writer after which the remains were taken to the train to be taken to Woodward, Iowa, there to be laid away to rest beside his former companion to await the call of the blessed Master to a new and better life, where sorrow and death shall not enter. His son and daughter accompanied the corpse to its last resting place, there to leave him in the enemies land till the day of final deliverance and victory, then to come forth with all who sleep in Jesus and shout victory, victory over death and the grave, going forth to meet the blessed Lord and King in the air coming to rule and reign over his everlasting kingdom, bringing about the restitution of all things spoken by the prophets of God. A blessed thought, a cheering hope, and a happy fruition.

Copied from a letter written by Elisha Sheffield:

Lancaster, June 16th 1860 Dear Mother

Under existing circumstances I thought it proper to drop you a few Lines. As it is Sabbath morning I am relieved from the cares of everyday life for the time being, and I think I can say that I can feel grateful for the calm repose that it brings, and while I realize that it is the day the day of Jehovahs rest which he then blessed and separated it from all other days of the week, and while a solemn stillness reigns throughout our house, more than is common with our children on the Sabbath, occasioned by an accident that befell one of their number yesterday; my mind runs back to the time when the Creator pronounced it sacred not the institution, but the time of the Seventh Day; and again it runs forward with eager hope and longing earnestly for that rest that remains for the people of God. But you will be anxious to know about the accident I spoke of and will be eagerly be asking ere this, "is all well", and I think I can say "all is well". The accident seemed but a slight one, but as the result Wallace has a broken arm. Yesterday, I sent Wallace to watch the oxen in Mr. Sandersons field while the breaker when to their dinner, just as they came back he was running along the open furrow, he stubbed his toe and fell into the furrow, got up crying went to meet Frank and Frank came immediately with him to the house after becoming satisfied that his arm was broken. Hitched up the team to take him to Lodi, but while Frank was getting the team ready, three men went by in a buggy and stopped at the store. One of them proved to be a doctor seeking for a location and practice. He came here, set his arm and we hope it is doing well, only one of the bones was broken so his arm did not hang lose. The children all felt very bad especially Lovilla. It made her almost broken hearted for the time being. Independent of this circumstance, we are about the same as when Zelotes and Ruth left. Hope this will find you there and all other friends as well.

Today I received a letter from Elder Davison, which I shall either enclose with this or send soon. Tell Elijah that we would like to see them here before harvest if they can come and you with them. Tell Mother Kirby she had better come and make us a visit before long or she will not know Ann when she does come for she is getting to be quite a large fat dame weighing 140 lbs. Tell her too that we have not heard from the East since I was there. Jonathan Fisk came back from Minnesota lately, is quite taken up with the country thinks of moving there next fall, while he was there a person from Milton was taken suddenly sick and died as suddenly and he thought it the same disease as Father. Bro. Davison seems to sympathise deeply with us and is as deeply engaged or interested in the spread of the truth of God in opposition to popular tradition and doctrines of men that have well night outplanted the truth of God in the world. I would like for Elijah to read Bro. Davisons letter, as he can there in see the opinion of at least one man in regard to the state of the world and the churches therein in this our day of probation and preparation for the Kingdom of God. My prospects in regard to my worldly affairs looks as well as I could expect and I think I may say as I ought to or do desire, tho if I should be more abundantly prospered I hope that the Lord would direct me to make a proper use of it for his glory. The advancement of his truth among my fellowmen and that at last at the coming of the Lord and his Kingdom I may hear the welcome "Well done good and faithful servant into thou into the joy of thy Lord and then and there meet with all my friends to be parted no more.

Come out if you cam as it is quite uncertain about our being able to come visit there again this side of harvest, and if not before, it will undoubtedly be sometime after before I can come. Write or get Zelotes or Ruth when you get this. I remain your affectionate Son,

E. S. Sheffield

P.S. The doctor called today, thinks Wallace is doing well.

Notes for ANN KIRBY:

Parents listed as from Connecticut on 1880 census.

Samuel and Louisa H. Kirby most likely are her parents, Edwin etc. her siblings (unable to find match in the census to substantiate). All listed siblings state in the census that their parent's are from Connecticut with the exception of Ann who does not appear on any census with parent information listed. (The 1880 census may yield this information once Appanoose is available)

As Wisconsin did not become a state until 1848, Ann would've been born in Portage Ohio as opposed to Portage Wisconsin.

From George Sheffield:

ELISHA STRATTON SHEFFIELD

Thomas Sheffield lived in Bedfordshire County, England, when he wrote in a book on February 28, 1821, a record of his children. He didn't record his or his wives birthdates. The four children listed below are assumed to be of a first marriage. John born July 11, 1812; Rachel born July 14, 1814; Joel born November 16, 1817; and Dorcus, no record of date of birth. The other four children listed below are assumed to be of his second marriage. Elijah born October 7, 1821; Elisha born February 17, 1824; Benjamin born March 26, 1828; and Ruth born October 15, 1832.

The only records concerning the children and their families are Elijah, Elisha, and Ruth. Elijah had three daughters, but no sons. Ruth married Zelotes Southwick and lived in Wisconsin. Elisha is the descendant which is recorded in this record.

Elisha Stratton Sheffield came to America at the age of 17, in the year 1841. Most of his youthful days were spent near Fort Madison, now known as Madison, Wisconsin. In 1846, he married Ann Kirby, born in Portage County, Ohio, on September 18, 1828. He was a preacher in the Church of God 7th Day.

Sometime between 1846 and 1849, Elisha's first child, James, was born only to live six months. Then in 1849, twins were born. Lucian was stillborn, but Lucius lived. William Wallace was born in 1851, followed by Matilda Ann in 1854 and Lovilla Ruth in 1855. During these years, the family lived in Koshkonong, near Fort Atkinson in Rock County and near Westport in Dane County, Wisconsin.

The family moved to Illinois in the year of 1863. It was while they were there that they lived close to the Abel Robinson and the Samuel Stennett Davison families. Elisha had known these families from his parents in England. These families moved in 1864 to Centerville, Iowa.

Elisha's seventh child, Thomas Kirby, was born in 1864 with the eighth child, Olive, being born in 1869. The following year, 1870, Matilda married Samuel Stennett Davison Jr., in Centerville, Iowa.

In 1872, Elisha moved his family to Woodward, Iowa, where he and Ann would remain until Ann's death in 1889. The remaining children were all married there.

In 1903, Elisha moved to Nebraska where Wallace and Clare were living. In 1907, he visited in Oklahoma Territory where his children; Matilda and Stennett Davison, Lucius and Priscilla, and Thomas Kirby and Arabelle, were living. While he was there he performed the wedding ceremony for his granddaughter, Blanche. She married Clarence Burrell.

After his visit to Oklahoma Territory, he returned to live in Nebraska with Wallace and Clare. He died in 1907 and is buried in Woodward, Iowa.

Notes for DR. CYNTHIA E. LONG:

Obituary

SHEFFILED.—Cynthia E. Long was born on April 12, 1836 in Decatur Co., Ind. Was married to John Paul in 1851; he served sometime in the Union army during the Civil war, and was taken home to her in his coffin. Sometime after the end of the war she was married to John Singleton, who also served in the war and had received an honorable discharge. She began the study of medicine in 1880, first at Iowa City, afterwards at Cincinnati, Ohio. She practiced medicine about twenty-five years mostly in Benton county, Iowa. About six years after the death of her second husband she was married to E. S. Sheffield on the 26th day of November 1896. She died February 17th, 1906, being 69 years, 10 months and 5 days old. She is survived by her husband one brother, many cousins, nephews, nieces whose bereavement can be more really felt than told. In her early life she became a conscientious and consistent member of the Christian church. In later years with a desire to find in the Bible definite authority for observing the first day of the week as the weekly rest day hence she gave the Bible critical investigation, but failing to find the evidence she became at once a conscientious observer of the seventh day and thus continued till her death faithful to the truth of God kind to every one. She will be missed by all, but she rests from her labor and her works do follow. Words of comfort were spoken in the Christian church to a large and attentive congregation by R. E. Caviness assisted by Eld. Elliott, pastor of the Christian church. She was laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery, Vinton, Iowa, to await the trump of God to wake to eternal life in the kingdom of God. R. E. Caviness.

O cruel death, again we meet,

And own I've met a sore defeat,
As thou has broke a precious band
By thy unyielding cruel hand.

That band inclosed a loving wife,
But thou hast taken now her life,
Thus leaving me in grief to roam
A pilgrim in this world alone.

But I am hoping yet to see
The time when death shall conquered be
When Jesus Christ on earth shall reign,
And give God's servants life again.

'Twill be the resurrection morn
When saints from death to life are born,
They thus will then as angels be
All changed to immortality

--Written and composed by E. S. Sheffield.

Obit is from the Milton Telephone, Milton, Rock Co., WI. Thur. 01 Feb 1912:

M.Z. SOUTHWICK

Merit Zelotes Southwick was born in Clinton county, N.Y., November 11, 1827. He was married to Ruth Elizabeth Sheffield, January 23, 1858, in Jefferson county, Wis. Mr. Southwick died of partial paralysis incident to old age at Milton Junction, Wis., January 28, 1912, aged 84 years, 2 months, 17 days at the time of his death. He leaves two sisters, three brothers, an adopted daughter, Mrs. G.A. Crandall, four grandchildren, and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

His daughter and family have made their home with him for the past five years, caring for him as he was crippled with rheumatism and unable to get out much. May their tender care be rewarded.

In an early day his parents moved from New York and settled in Little Genessee near Milwaukee. For many years the deceased has lived in this vicinity, making his home in Milton Junction for the past twenty-five years.

Mr. Southwick was converted in early life, and his sympathies leaned toward the Adventist faith and at the time of his departure remained strong in the hope of a soon coming Savior and loned for a part in the resurrection. He was a man of prayer and love of the study of the bible. The funeral services were held from the home at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, January 30. Eld. Stebbins of Janesville officiating. Interment in Milton Junction cemetery.

Per Conley Wolterman:

They went into the dray business, hauled all the freight from the depot. They also had the ice business, standard oil and the opera house. In 1918, they sold out and moved to the Plato farm north of Anthon. They farmed for 4 years. Their children were Darrell, Dorothy, Wayne and Adelaide. Dorothy and Darrell finished school in Anthon for the 1918 term. They then went 3 years to the Correctionville school. Adelaide and Wayne went to the country school.

Darrell was a pharmacist and musician. He had a music store in Sioux City and his own dance band. His retired and lived in Sioux City...in 1988.

Dorothy married and moved to New York. She lived there until the death of her husband. She moved back to Sioux City where she attended Morningside college, then to Boulder, Colorado, where she graduated as a teacher. She taught at Longmont, Colorado until her death.

Wayne went into the music store after returning from World War II. He resided then on an acreage between Anthon and Oto. He was semiretired, but did still do repairs and sold band instruments and accessories.

Adelaide married and moved to Opportunity, Washington near Spokane. Later she and her daughter Marsha moved back to Sioux City, where Marsha went to school and became a teacher in the Sioux City schools. She graduated from college at Vermillion, S.D., as a lawyer. She and her husband, both lawyers, practiced in S.D. Adelaide was in the music store and then retired in Sioux City. (from the Anthon Centennial book of 1888 to 1988)

He married CLARA LOUISE ROBINSON Abt. 1883⁶², daughter of ABEL ROBINSON and LEAH DAVISON. She was born Jan 1858 in Ill.⁶², and died 1943 in Meridian, ID.

Notes for WILLIAM WALLACE SHEFFIELD:

SHEFFIELD—William Wallace Sheffield died at his home near Earl, Nebr., after a very short illness of advanced stage of heart disease. The deceased was born near Madison, Wisconsin, Dec. 15, 1851. Age 53 years 1 month and 2 days. He married Louie Robinson June 21 1882. To this union were born five boys. He leaves a faithful wife, a father (E. S. Sheffield), five sons, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his death. For many years Brother Sheffield lived near Woodward, Iowa. From this place he with his family moved to Oklahoma where they lived six months and then moved to Rawlins county, Kansas, where he lived about eighteen months. Desiring to secure church and Sabbath school privileges he moved to his new home near Earl, Frontier Co., Nebr. His place is greatly missed in his home, in the church and Sabbath school and in the community, for he was a kind loving husband and father and a devoted Christian, having for many years been a firm believer in the doctrines of the Bible as held by the Church of God, of which he was a faithful member. He was spoken of by all his neighbors as a good, honest and conscientious man. He died as he lived—in the hope of the soon coming of the Life giver to banish sickness, and sorrow and death and to give eternal life to all the faithful, and set up His everlasting kingdom. We sorrow not as having no hope, for we believe our brother will come forth when the Master calls in the morning of the resurrection. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer to the sorrowing family. His oldest son, Elmer Sheffield and wife, of Woodward, Iowa, were present. We laid him away in the silent tomb, sweetly sleeping in Jesus till that voice which shall wake the dead, shall say, come forth. L. L. PRESLER.

Death of W. W. Sheffield.

W. W. Sheffield died at his home near Farnam, Neb., January 17, 1905, of heart failure, aged 53 years 1 month and 2 days. Mr. Sheffield was born in Wisconsin, December 15 1851, the second son of E. S. and Ann Sheffield. When about fourteen years of age his parents moved to Appanoose county, Iowa, and from there to Boone county about five years later, settling near Woodward, where he remained until the spring of 1901, when he moved to Oklahoma, afterwards going to Rawlins county, Kansas, then to Frontier county Nebraska, where he lived at the time of his death.

He united with the Church of God and remained a faithful member all his life. He was married June 21, 1881, to Lovina Robinson, of Mortonville, Kans., to whom were born five sons, Elmer W. of Scranton, Oliver A., William A., Jesse A., and Robert E., who with their mother remain to mourn him. He leaves besides his family an aged father and step-mother, two sisters, two brothers and numerous other friends. One sister Mrs. Olive Darner died nearly eight years ago.

From Brother E. S. Sheffield.

Dear Brethren and Sisters: —I want to say a few words to every one I can that is hoping with me for a more enduring life free from grief, in the kingdom of God when it comes. To all such the promise of Jesus to raise up all his followers at the last day, and he informs us it is his Father's will that he shall do this, and he has assured us it is his delight to comply with that will, hence the promise that he will comply with that will without anyone given him being lost. Oh, how precious that promise! And how that preciousness is intensified by the reception of such news as was imparted by the following dispatch none realizes but those who have been robbed of loved ones by the cruel enemy death! "Farnam, Neb., Jan. 17, 1905. Mrs. E. S. Sheffield, Vinton, Iowa. Wallace is dead! If father comes, answer. Louise Sheffield. 4:35 p.m. The foregoing dispatch was received at 5 p.m. The next morning I picked up a little unopened paper and read:

DEATH OF A GODLY MAN.

"His work is done, his warfare ended.
His earthly trials all are over.
His place shall know him here no more,
Behold how calm in earth he slumbers,
Each wrinkling trouble wiped away,
Earth's load no more his soul encumbers.
Tread with soft step and forehead lowly,
As ye draw near his saintly bed,
Though naught can break the rest so holy,
That reigns around the pillowed head,
Till the last trumpet's solemn warning,
Re-echoes through the boundless skies,
Shall usher in the eternal morning,
And bid the slumbering dead arise.
He slumbers well, God's angels guard him,
Who giveth his beloved sleep.
Waiting and watching death hath found him.
Oh, not for him, ye mourners. weep.
Oh, not for him, shed tears of sorrow,
Around whose brow with dawning rays,
The light of that eternal morrow,
In pure and placid sweetness plays,
His work is done, his warfare ended,
That work was hard, that warfare sore,
Yet God be thanked he soon shalt rise,
To be with Christ forevermore.

After reading the foregoing beautiful lines of calm resignation, hope and faith I was gratified to learn they came by the pen of our beloved brother, Eugene Willard who like myself is watching the signs that are passing because we cannot know by time reckoning, therefore we must heed the admonition of Jesus given to all who are waiting for the kingdom of God, and if we are now in the time of the end and the sounding of the seventh trumpet under which John heard great voices in heaven declaring the kingdom of this world are transformed into the kingdom of Christ, it is important to compare passing events with the predictions as the events of the trumpet, and time of the end are foretold but the length of time is not, We can with earnestness watch and wait hoping we may be found ready to meet our loved ones when they are brought to life again to die no more.
Vinton, Ia.

Notes for LOVILLA RUTH SHEFFIELD:

Obituary.

SHEFFIELD.—Villa Sheffield was born near Woodward, Iowa, April 10, 1883, died Feb. 20, 1908, at the home of M. M. Just, near Fairview, Okla., aged 24 years, 10 months and 10 days.

At an early age she made a public profession of her love for God, for Christ, and for righteousness, and has ever lived a conscientious Christian life; held in high esteem by all who knew her.

Death has plucked one of our fairest flowers. Her pleasant looks, gentle voice, and kindly ways, attracted all who met her. In her death her parents lose a loving, dutiful daughter, brothers and sisters a kind and gentle sister; the public schools a most efficient teacher, and friends one who was ever ready with words of sympathy, cheer and commendation. To all, her life was ever an example of the earnest, conscientious Christian.

Her sickness, pneumonia, took her from her school, Thursday, Feb. 13, a week from which time she died.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Fairview, Sabbath 24. The songs were finely rendered by the Howk family, among which songs was her favorite, "There'll be no Dark Valley when Jesus comes." Prayer and scripture reading by the Rev. Mason, pastor of the M. E. church, sermon by Eld. S. S. Davison, from Rev. 19: 8, "And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white." Inter(XXX)nt at Roscoe cemetery.

She leaves to mourn her loss, father, mother, three sisters, three brothers, many relatives, and a host of friends to whom their acquaintance with her will ever be a sweet memory.

S. S. D.

or Lovilla.
